SPEAKER FOR THIS WEEK

Pastor Simon Neo of Singapore Breakthrough Missions did not complete his primary school education. He joined the gangs at 14 and set up his own at 15. When he got tired of gangland violence he switched to hip rock music and hippy lifestyle and soon made a name for himself. At age 16, he became hooked on drugs. In 1976, Simon repented and was saved by the grace of the Lord.

A year later, i.e. 1977, it was the turning point in his life. By the grace of Lord Jesus he overcame drug addiction as well as his many years of smoking and all vices and bad habits. He began to spread with great fervor and zeal the message of the grace of Jesus Christ's salvation to drug addicts mired in pain, destitution and despair.

He received his theological training in 1981 and graduated from Chin Lien Bible Seminary in 1985. On 1st July, 1983, together with a few other ex-drug addicts he established the non-profit Christian halfway house – "Breakthrough Missions"

Breakthrough Missions (Breakthrough, in brief) was established in July 1983. It is a non-profit Christian halfway house for drug offenders. Its rehabilitation program is based on the gospel and Christian faith and not on medication or drug offenders' own effort and power.
