

Holy Week - Pastoral Letter from Ps Peter Teo

Dearly beloved of Zion Gospel Mission,

Greetings in the name of the risen Lord Jesus Christ!

As we are coming toward Holy Week, remembering the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, I am reminded of our Resurrection Sunday last year. I remember it as clear as it was yesterday. Sister Joanna was the worship leader on that day. I preached about Peter's denial and God's restoration. We were all doing the video recording in the auditorium with only essential staff. There was no audience. It was a tough and difficult time.

Looking back, even through the uncertainties and losses of the past year, God was very good to us. Before the Covid-19 circuit breaker kicked in, we had just finished Ps Benny Ho's Foundation series the week before. And in a short time, we managed to learn how to use Zoom for our cell groups and started watching recorded Sunday services. Those of us who were never a fan of technology had to hop in and adapt quickly. Thank God for the cell leaders and members who held the church together in times like these! Even the cell leaders had to learn how to serve Holy Communion. During those times, I remembered these words: "Through it all, through it all, we have to learn to trust in Jesus for He will turn our sorrow into joy." Also, "weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning" (Ps 30:5 b). Parts of last year were like night. They were like winter. With the advent of vaccination, hope and life are returning.

With some caution, let us celebrate this Holy Week safely and with a grateful heart. Just like Spring, which is full of new life and exciting activities, we are starting our celebration with "The Significance of the Triumphal Entry" on Palm Sunday (28th March). This is followed by a presentation by the children, youth worship band on Good Friday (2nd April @11:30am). Then, we will have a combined Resurrection Sunday service (4th April @10am). The guest evangelist, Ps Don Wong will be sharing the message "What are you weeping for?" Please bring your friends this Holy Week by using the "Who Is He?" card.

I am excited for what the Lord has for us this Holy Week/Passover. I trust you are also. Let us celebrate with hope and thankful hearts while we can. Also, I am sure there are testimonies during the pandemic which we have not heard yet. If you have one to share, please submit it to admin@zgm.com.sg.

May I wish all of us a "Happy Holy Week."
